OK. You are telling this after 2 weeks. I checked on the website of tpcindia.com still in transit

I have sent below complaint to TPC

"I had sent a courier by awb VPL503003059 on 2 Jan'12 to Bhatinda. It is still in transit. It reached Delhi on 3 Jan'12. Since then 2 weeks have passed. Pl check and arrange urgent delivery. Thanks. Asheet"

Let me see what they revert with.

You also ask your local TPC guy to check with their Delhi office Status On Track

Buddy I received the mp3 player yesterday. It does not work..

- When i plug out the charger after hours of charging..it says low battery shut down. Also it stays in fm mode even when the charger is plugged in
- The condition is quite terrible..
- Armband is damaged and is of no use..
- The right earhook is broken..

Why is it so? Did u checked it before sending??

asheet

Sent 20 January 2012 - 09:37 PM

Hi

I am sorry to hear the feedback.

The item was in fully working condition & hardly used. I had checked it before sending & found it to be working & fully functional.

The armband was unused & the headset was intact with no broken earplug etc

I had complained to Professional courier on daily basis to all their offices & a Times of India, Pehreddar etc for their poor & shoddy service. I guess post time must have located the package & delivered to you.

I had packed it safely in a steel round box & then in a box carton so no way there could be a damage.

Please raise a complaint with Local Professional courier office & send me the acknowledgment also chase them here.

I contacted them, they said they have delivered to me as they received.

First it is not even partially working, forget fully working. It doesn't even turn on without charger plugged in and when it starts, it stays in FM mode.

Secondly, The armband is totally damaged at one end so it can't be hooked up to mp3 player.

Thirdly, The earphones are fine but the earhook is broken.

Fourth there was no steel round box or strong packing.. It was a light paper-bag in which it was packed.

I am uploading the pics. Watch them carefully and suggest a solution please.

Hmmmm... I guess the courier has done some mischief.
Pl try with another charger or charge using Laptop/PC USB port and check

darksmart

I tried everything.
The results are same..I could have ignored the damaged armband and broke earhook but whole mp3 player in not working...Please suggest..

Pl check the RCA S2001 manual at below link. That may help in using the mp3 properly

Hi Anupam

I rxd the mp3 player shipped back by you.
I found that it is fully charged
I checked & found that you have loaded 41 mp3 songs & an audio book.
I started the player at 840pm & it is still playing without any problem & time 1135hrs. So that means a time of 3 hrs & still the battery has not run out.
So that proves that there is nothing wrong with mp3 player or the accessories
Thus your reason for returning the mp3 player for a refund is not acceptable
Pl send me Rs 150 for shipping it back to you by DTDC or Rs 100 for shipping Professional courier.
If you have a local friend at Mumbai, he is welcome to come in person & coll after verifying the facts as mentioned by me above.
Thanks

What ??Firstly I have not loaded anything to that mp3 player..secondly the player is fine according to you and so are the accessories..I wonder how you to wear it with the broken and torn out armband and earhook..If you call it wrong,then thanks for the wonderful deal..

First you say that it was packed properly in steel box and everything was fine shipped..and when i sent u pics and details , u said that shipping company did mischief..and now u say that player and accessories are well in order.

At least have some honesty yaar..How can you do this???

asheet

Sent 05 February 2012 - 09:04 AM

Hi.

1. If you have not loaded songs, then it must have been loaded by me 😊. No that.

2. When I say accessories, I mean that they earphones are in working condition you have already accepted the fact that the earhook & armband are broken & the pics, I am confirming that there is no more damage as you just shipped it

3. I had guided you with the link for manual. It gives the operations details. I would have noticed that the player doesn't have a charger but I gave you an c motorola charger so you don't have to look for a USB port/PC to charge it.

Hope you agree to above facts. My mistake that I didn't post you pictures of before sending & pic of courier packet.

I can give you another set of earphones & a armband with a belt clip from another similar device to ensure that you have a working set. I will also ship you the earplugs in which one was broken in transit.

i dont know what 2 say..I trusted u and i m repenting..Also there was no batt up..I checked it..

Dude,

I don't agree to trust factor. I am truthful to you & abt the product perf.

I am not sure what you expected out of mp3 player & what you mean by batt backup.

Player works w/out any problem if you just let it play for over 3 hrs. I tested it & shared with you the feedback.

Also FM radio is also plying as per manual w/out any issues including record function.

You need to study the manual & understand all the functions. Sometime user interface has a steep learning curve

darksmart

I think for battery back up,I dont need to study manual..I know fm works fir MAY the other functions as u r saying,But the thing cannot hold the charge for minutes..

Sorry.. Deal is a deal. You are buying a second hand working product. I never any warranty or refund option.

So you either pay reship charges else arrange collection in person.

If you don't collect by 10 Mar'12, I will just throw it away as I don't want to keep your item with me.

I am not responsible for keeping your item at my place indefinitely.

So the deal is a deal..Does the deal in your terms means selling faulty items or Sorry I cannot pay you any more charges for the faulty mp3 player, If you have decency, then please reship, at least I will get satisfied that I have purchased the junk for 600rs.
